

Supplementary Fig. 1. Annual trends in reperfusion therapy and craniectomy for patients with acute ischemic stroke aged >80 years. Patients aged >80 years who are admitted with acute ischemic stroke (I63 code) via the emergency room between January 2011 and December 2020 at any general or tertiary general hospital with >100 beds were included. The research method is the same as that in the main study. IVT : intravenous thrombolysis.